

About us

We are a private dressage training facility located in beautiful Lichtaart, Belgium, close to the Dutch border.

Grand Prix rider Jenny Veenstra is in charge of educating the horses until the highest level in an honest and horsefriendly way. We also welcome motivated students for private lessons with their own horses at all levels.

Marc van Vlasselaer teaches driving and lunging, private or in group. He is VLP driving judge and certified driving instructor.
